MAD DOG SCARE IN GETTYSBURG

Two Bitten by Dog Apparently Affected with Rabies. Victims of Animal Treated. Baltimore Street Scene of Excitement.

Two Gettysburg people were bitten about noon today by a dog supposed to be mad and which gave every evidence of being affected with rabies. The victims were Martin McSherry, baggage master at the Western Maryland Station, and Luther Musselman, son of J. Elmer Musselman, of Baltimore street.

Mr. McSherry was going up Baltimore street when he heard some one calling to him to "look out." Before he could turn a small yellow long haired dog had bitten him in the leg. In turning Mr. McSherry fell and the dog let go, running on until he saw the Musselman boy.

His second victim was not aware of the dog's approach and he, too, was bitten in the leg before he knew what was occurring. Both went to the office of Dr. H. M. Hartman where it was found that the flesh was torn. The necessary treatment was rendered.

The dog proceeded and is said to have snapped at other parties. No information of the animal having been killed has been received.

LIVELY RUNAWAY

A horse attached to a spring wagon owned by butcher Joseph Conrad, of McSherrystown, ran away from Hoke's lime kilns near Hanover about 10 a. m. Thursday, which resulted in the wagon being badly wrecked.

Mr. Conrad had gone to the kilns for a load of crushed stone. As he was driving under the elevated railroad bridge, a York trolley car was pasisng over the trestle. The animal became frightened. After running a short distance the wagon collided with a telephone pole, which released the horse, which ran some little distance before being caught.

Mr. Conrad was thrown from the wagon in the collision, but escaped uninjured. The animal also escaped injury, but the harness was badly torn.

A WISE BOY

The attraction at the Walter Theatre next Thursday, February 10, is Harry Weber in an original comedy creation entitled "A Wise Boy," from the pen of Graham Cox. The scenes of this comedy are laid in Asbury Park at midsummer, which give ample opportunity for pretty settings and unique light effects. This is Mr. Weber's third big season in "A Wise Poy" which is without a doubt the liveliest, cleverest and brighte st laughing success that this clever comedian has ever been seen in. Mr. Weber in the role of "Bill," a breezy chap, catches the audience from the start. His singing and dancing are as usual, one of the big features of the performance.

PEEPER WORKING ON HIGH STREET

"Jack the Peeper" Annoys the People of the Western Part of Town by Peering into Windows during Early Morning Hours.

Residents of the Third Ward, and of West High street especially, have been greatly annoyed the past few mornings by discovering a "Jack, the Peeper" at work. The man has been seen a number of times on West High street and in the alley in the rear of that street

He was noticed for several mornings before his purpose was discovered. Walking along, he would suddenly stop and peer into a window and then proceed on his way. Several times he was seen by people into whose windows he looked and as soon as he was discovered would hurry along as though he had important business on hand.

The man starts his "rounds" quite early, for sometimes he has been observed before daybreak walking along and looking into the homes in the part of town which he has chosen to make the scene of his operations. Men going early to work have seen him but have done nothing to make him stop his unpleasant conduct.

Most of the residents of the West end of West High street have been told of the visitor and Chief Gordon, who lives in that part of town, states that if the marauder does not wish to get into trouble he would do well to desist from his early morning pastime.

HOW GETTYSBURG CAN IMPROVE

Gettysburg Officials Give their Views of Ways in which the Town may be Made Better. Postmaster McIhenny on New Post Office.

Several more of the interviews with local people on ways to improve Gettysburg are given today.

WM. B. McILHENNY

(Postmaster.)

We have been hoping for a new post office building here and when it comes I believe it will be one of the greatest improvements the town has ever had. We need it badly as I can testify from my experience as postmaster. Our facilities are not adequate to handle the immense amount of business which goes through the office, especially in rush seasons. In addition to this we should have a building which would impress tourists more favorably. Our present location is not good and the visitors to town frequently have trouble finding it. I think Gettysburg needs a big post office building as much as it needs anything and I believe it would do the town a great deal of good. Charles E. Kamper, assistant supervising architect, who selected the site here suggests to me after considerable correspondence that the building should be 90 x 65 feet. This would be adequate for all of our needs. The building will be three stories in height, the first for the post office, the second for the Battlefield Commission and the third for storage purposes.

VALENTINE WARNER

(Street Commissioner.)

The alleys are in bad condition and the people of town are the cause of it. Ashes, rubbish of all kinds, dead chickens and other things are thrown there and then people expect the borough to clean up the dirt. I have notified a number about this but it doesn't do much good. If the town is to be made look better people must stop dumping all of their rubbish out over the back yard fence. They must put their ashes in the back yards and have them hauled away or the alleys will stay in as bad a shape as they are now. Another thing that people could do to make the town better would be to clean off their pavements as soon as it stops snowing. They wait too long, the snow packs and then they don't get it off at all. The ordinance allows twelve hours time but this is too much.

GEORGE GORDON

(Chief of Police.)

Just now the attention of town people ought to be called to cleaning out their gutters after snow storms. I invite all to come and see how I have it in front of my home The snow from pavement and curb was carried into the middle of the road and it was cleaned away ten feet from the pavement line Many people pay no attention to cleaning out their gutters and when the snow melts the pavements are flooded, making walking very unpleasant. People should take pride in their properties and attend to cleaning up as soon as possible after it snows.

UGLY DRIVING ACCIDENT

The reckless driving of a spirited horse by a drunken negro, came near causing the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Herr, formerly of Gettysburg, and the serious injury to the child's mother, recently at Savannah, Georgia.

The horse, driven by the negro, struck the go-cart containing the child while the mother was crossing a street in that city. The child was rendered unconscious and is suffering from bruises on the head and shoulders while the mother received several lacerations on her hand and bruises on her head and body. The negro was arrested.

Mr. Herr is a native of Gettysburg, and, left an orphan at the age of 10 years, he lived for a period of four years with the family of Prof. J. W. Thoman, at Abbottstown, when the latter was Superintendent of Schools of the county. He has a number of relatives in Adams County.

CIVIC LIFE INSURANCE PLAN

Connecticut Man Wants Bridgeport to Take Out $3,000,000 Policy.

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 4.—That he be insured for an amount between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, the city to pay the premiums and receive the benefits under the policies at his death, is the novel scheme for paying the city debt which has been presented by David S. Beach, of this city, to the Bridgeport common council for its consideration.

He stipulates in return that the city erect to his memory a monument with a suitable inscription, acclaiming him the originator of municipal life insurance.

THOMAS WATSON DENOUNCES CARNEGIE

Ironmaster Said Lowest Negro Excels Old-Time Scotch.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 4.—Because Andrew Carnegie recently stated in an address before the Armstrong association that the "lowest negro of the south is more advanced than were his (Carnegie's) ancestors in Scotland 200 years ago," Thomas E. Watson, the Populist leader, denounces the ironmaster as a "despicable creature," an "ass" and a defamer of the Scotch.

"Everybody knows," said Watson, "how Carnegie got his money, his relations with the controlling powers of this government, his social equality practices, his dinners to Booker Washington, his donations to coon colleges, and every intelligent man knows that in saying what he did about the Scotch he lied, and in blarneying the Afro-Americans and the Ogdens of the north he despicably lowered himself, at the same time he insulted flagrantly, grossly, infamously every man that has in his veins the blood of old Scotland."

Watson then reviews the story of Scotland, naming a long list of her great men and women who lived from two to four centuries ago, and says:

"Why insult the descendants of those people by comparing them to the brutish, thick skulled negro? I find myself marveling, past all power of expression, that any Scotchman could be ass enough to say what Carnegie said. Compare the nigger to this wonderful race. Such nauseating talk to the black people is not only an intolerable affront to the whites, but an injury to the negroes themselves."

Kills Wife on the Street.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Feb. 4. — "Oh, Charles, don't shoot me!" screamed Mrs. Mary Hickman, as she stepped from a street car, while four shots simultaneously echoed through the air. A few minutes later the woman was dead, and her husband, Charles Hickman, was under arrest.

Carry Man Off In Auto and Rob Him.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Two men in evening dress drove up to the sidewalk in an automobile, pointed revolvers at Jacob Butz, a restaurant proprietor, and after forcing him into the machine, took him from a prominent street into a dark alley and robbed him.

New York, Feb. 4.—Her husband and her dogs are treated alike in the will of Mrs. Minnie Knoch. The document leaves $10,000, the income to be used to support the dogs in luxury, while an equal sum is left to the husband, Henry Knoch.

ELKINS DEMANDS FULL FOOD PROBE

West Virginia Senator Criticizes Lodge Resolutions.

MAY BECOME AN INSURGENT

Attacks Senator Aldrich and Declares He Is Trying to Dodge the Tariff Issue—Demands Probe of Trusts and Monopolies.

Washington, Feb. 4. — Senator Lodge's resolution to investigate the high cost of living was reported to the senate by the finance committee, of which Mr. Lodge is chairman.

In an instant Senator Elkins, of West Virginia—long considered a Republican stalwart—was on his feet with a furious denunciation of Mr. Aldrich's action. He took the Republican leaders severely to task and declared himself a "near-insurgent."

The West Virginia senator said he had offered a broader and more sweeping resolution thirty days ago, yet it had "slept the sleep of the just" and no action had been taken upon it. Now the Lodge resolution was reported over night by the finance committee.

He complained bitterly because the Lodge resolution did not purpose inquiring as to whether the tariff, the trusts, monopolies and combinations are in any way responsible for the high cost of living. It was an attempt to evade that issue, he said. For himself, he did not believe the tariff to be responsible, but he did not want to dodge the question, and he did not think the Republican party wanted to dodge it.

"But," he added emphatically, "there are a great many people who do believe so, and you can't fool 80,000,000 of people. If the tariff is the cause of high prices, we want to know it, the Republican party wants to know it, and if trusts are responsible, we want to know that, too, and we can't gain anything by dodging the issue."

He insisted that there should be a specific provision in the resolution extending the inquiry to the tariff, trusts, monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade as causes for high prices. Such a provision was embodied in his resolution, yet he had been unable to get it out of committee.

Senator Bailey taunted Senator Elkins with becoming an insurgent. "He is tired of being an anarchist," he said, "and he is getting to be an insurgent."

Bailey added that Elkins hold told him that morally he believed in the income tax, but had voted against it in order to remain regular.

This Senator Elkins did not deny.

"Yes," he said, "I voted for everything the senator from Rhode Island put in the bill, and it was he who determined what should go in and what should stay out. I did this to get the little drippings in the way of protection which were offered to my people. I stayed on the reservation, but I don't have to remain there always.

"The senator from Rhode Island knows why I did not become an insurgent. But now I have a little more water to swim in. I am not so much bound in slavery as I was, and I want to say that I don't believe this investigation will be as thorough as it ought to be."

Mr. Aldrich replied that the Lodge resolution was much broader than Mr. Elkins had represented.

Elkins After Trusts.

"Let's see," responded Mr. Elkins, "if it is; where is there anything in it about trusts and monopolies? Are they to be investigated as to their effect on food prices? Let's see who is cursing them."

Mr. Elkins declared that the treatment his resolution had received was due to a desire to rob him of credit in connection with the matter and prevent his participation in the inquiry.

"Do you think the trusts or the tariff responsible for the high prices?" asked Mr. Aldrich.

Mr. Elkins said that he had desired that the investigation should develop that fact. He declared the country was alarmed over the situation.

Reintroducing his resolution with a request that it be referred to the finance committee, Mr. Elkins said:

"So far I have kept in the procession and stayed on the reservation. But I don't have to stay there always; tariff laws do not live forever."

FAILED TO PUMP GEMS

Doctors Couldn't Recover Jewels From Prisoner's Stomach.

New York, Feb. 4.—A prisoner who is charged with engineering a hold-up and robbery of a United States army captain and then swallowing the evidence, was the subject of two stomach pump operations in a police station.

Captain George Rochfuss was held up at a pistol's point by two men. One of them scampered off with a pearl and diamond pin from the captain's cravat. The army man was knocked into unconsciousness, but the scuffle attracted a policeman, who chased the thieves. He caught one fugitive, but said he saw his prisoner tear the stones from their setting and cram them into his mouth. The stomach pump was brought into play to recover the gems. It failed to have the desired effect, either on this occasion or when the operation was repeated after the man was taken in court with an attack of cramps.

The prisoner, who gave his name as James McBurt, was held.

MINERS HOPE TO AVERT A STRIKE

Peaceful Settlement of Wage Dispute is Expected.

Toledo, O., Feb. 4. — Hope of an amicable adjustment was expressed by Thomas L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, while acting as temporary chairman of the joint wage scale conference of the operators and miners of the Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania district, which opened here. He said:

"I hope that we will proceed calmly, dispassionately and deliberately and that we will be able to arrive at a proper and intelligent settlement of any differences existing."

John H. Jones, president of the Pittsburg-Buffalo Coal company, and one of the principal operators present, expressed a belief that a peaceable agreement will be reached and a strike avoided.

President Lewis made an unqualified declaration for the repeal of "so-called anti-conspiracy laws, which," he said, "circumscribe the operators so that they constantly dread being dragged into the courts."

He said that when the miners and operators get together for the uplifting of the industry, there will be less risk of investment and more safety for the workmen.

He said that a demand should be made of the railroads that they pay the mine owners more money for the coal they consume, that the latter might spend more money for the protection of their employes, and added: "While we are talking of safety measures I believe that we can go a step further and join the mine owners in an effort to repeal the so-called anti conspiracy laws which are a dead weight to the mining business and of no particular benefit to any one."

A friend who buys much fur—cnieny mink, skunk and rat—states that the trapper loses much by taking mink before Dec. 1, when they are in what is called "unprime" condition. Such pelts do not fetch within $2 to $3 apiece what they would if they were classed prime. The only thing that would prevent a carrying out of this sensible suggestion would be that the average trapper would rather get $3 for an unprime skin than have his neighbor take it later when prime and get $5 or $6 for it. A law prohibiting trapping before the date mentioned would remedy this difficulty, however.

Free Liver Remedy

It is well to stop a physical ailment at the first signs of its approach, and that is especially true of liver trouble, which can eventually give rise to so many serious complications. Many have liver trouble and imagine it is indigestion, and hence take the wrong remedy.

When the liver does not store up sufficient gastric juices it becomes sluggish, and in this way disturbs the stomach and bowels, with which it is supposed to work in harmony. Then comes the sallow complexion, the pimply face, the dull pain in the forehead, the thinning of the blood, etc. A very quick and sensible way to stop the trouble as well as to cure it is by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which contains ingredients especially intended to promote the activity of the liver.

Among the many thousands who have written the doctor about the results achieved with his remedy, and who are glad to make the facts public so that others can help themselves, are Mr. Jas. Kennedy, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. S. A. La Rue of Smith's Grove, Ky., and many others.

These, like thousands of others, started the use of Syrup Pepsin with a sample. If you will send your name and address you can also obtain a free trial bottle. This will prove to you that liver trouble is promptly cured with this remedy or money will be refunded. Having tried it you can then buy it in the regular way of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and the latter is sufficient for an entire family.

This remedy is a vast improvement over cathartic tablets and salts, which only do good for the time being. Syrup Pepsin is permanent in its results, is pleasant to take and does not gripe. It is especially good for all those who cannot stand a violent purgative.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R.521 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

TRADE PACT WITH GERMANY

Tariff Negotiations End Satisfactorily to Both Sides.

A TARIFF WAR AVERTED

Each Country Will Receive the Minimum Rates Now Accorded to Other Nations—Will Be No Interruption of Trade.

Washington, Feb. 4.—A tariff war between Germany and the United States has been averted. The tariff negotiations have been concluded satisfactorily to both governments. The United States will obtain not only the German minimum rates now enjoyed under the special agreement which will expire on Feb. 7 next, but will receive also the benefit of all the minimum rates of the German tariff now accorded to foreign governments. In return Germany will receive the minimum tariff rates of the Payne-Aldrich act, after March 31 next, when the maximum and minimum features of the American law will become operative. Incidentally the successful outcome of the present negotiations is a diplomatic triumph for Secretary of State Knox.

The fact that a tariff war has been averted is especialy gratifying to the officers of the state and treasury departments because of the fact that in the calendar year just ended the direct interchange of commodities between the United States and Germany exceeded $409,000,000. Allowing for importations into Germany through other countries, the volume of trade between the countries is estimated at about $500,000,000.

By the terms of the commercial agreement which has been in force since 1907 Germany extended to the United States its conventional, or lowest, rates on about 100 out of nearly 1000 tariff numbers. These 100 numbers covered a large percentage in value of the actual imports from the United States, but left many important commodities of American manufacture at a disadvantage in competition with similar products from other countries. This agreement will expire on Feb. 7. An agreement has been reached under which it will be possible for the German government, with the co-operation of the imperial parliament, to avoid any interruption of trade and at the same time extend to the United States not only the rates now enjoyed, but the entire remaining schedules of minimum rates now accorded other countries.

SLAYER BACK AGAIN

Gives Up After Hiding In Mountains For Two Days.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 4.—Pale and haggard, Frank E. McMillen, was arraigned in court to answer the charge of murdering his wife. McMillen caused a sensation on Tuesday by fleeing from justice, after sitting in court all day on Monday and assisting his counsel to select a jury. He went into the mountains, and for two days the police trailed him through the forests and fields, following his tracks in the snow, but they failed to overtake him. Wednesday night, almost starved and in a wretched condition as the result of his exposure, he applied for food and rest at the home of Robert Miller, a farmer, who took him into custody and delivered him to the authorities.

"My God, what I have suffered no one knows," he moaned as Miller took him into the house. "I am starving and my feet are numb with the cold."

Next morning McMillen was escorted to the court room under a heavy guard. Up until the hour of his disappearance he had been out on bail, and he could go where he pleased. On Monday Judge Thomas H. Baldridge reproved him for being late and delaying the court, and that lecture brought forcibly to him the enormity of his crime. He is accused of killing his wife on July 13 in mistake for her paramour. He found the two together in the house and fired through the window.

Not a word was said about his absence when he was arraigned. The trial proceeded as if it had not been delayed for two days. As soon as District Attorney J. B. Curtz finished his opening the examination of witnesses was begun.

Public sympathy is with McMillen, whose defense will be the unwritten law, which has been successful in the past half doben murder trials in this county.

TRUST GOES AFTER STEEL JOBBING TRADE

Will Deal Directly With the Small Consumer.

Pittsburg, Feb. 4 — The United States Steel corporation has decided to go after the steel jobbing trade and the steel jobbers' profits throughout the United States, while at the same time delivering a telling blow to independent makers of steel. The plan was revealed in Pittsburg through the letting of contracts by the Carnegie Steel company for a monster warehouse at Twelfth and Pike streets, in the heart of the business district. The corporation will deal directly with the small consumer of steel in any form, something the big concern has never before done. The Pittsburg warehouse, which is to be duplicated in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Buffalo, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Omaha, New Orleans and Dallas, will carry with it electricity to the extent of 650 horse power to run cranes, cold saws, planes, punches, etc., in order that the small consumer who has hitherto bought from the jobber can have his material cut and fitted before it leaves the warehouse.

This open bid for the retail iron and steel trade of the country is semi-officially explained at Pittsburg by the statement that there has been much complaint from the small consumer over unsatisfactory service rendered by the small steel jobber who has taken his material from the storehouses of the corporation or of the independent steel manufacturers. It is intended now that it will be as easy to buy a keg of nails or one steel beam from the steel corporation direct as to buy a steel bridge.

Not in years has a move of the steel corporation caused such consternation among independents as has this one.

NEW BLACK HAND GAME

Pose as Trance Medium to Extract Money From Italians.

Passaic, N. J., Feb. 4. — Two men and two women, all Italians, alleged members of a Black Hand gang, were arrested here. Joseph Anzermo, supposed leader of the band, by posing as a trance medium, has succeeded, it is said, in extracting various sums from several Passaic Italians. The plan was to send a Black Hand threat demanding a sum of money on a certain date. Anzermo would then call on the receiver of the letter and, apparently going into a trance, would reveal its contents and agree to protect the person threatened from harm if he were paid a certain sum. While working this scheme on Salvatore Nichi Anzermo was trapped by detectives who were hidden in Nichi's house.

Horse, Driver and Woman Drowned.

Paris, Feb. 4.—A newspaper states that beneath the deep flood water at Alfortville there can be seen a cab, a horse, the driver and a woman occupant of the cab. The woman apparently hired the vehicle to escape, but was overtaken by the flood and was engulfed, together with the driver and horse.

MRS. BROKAW GETS DECREE

Wife of Millionaire Given Separation From Husband and Fat Alimony. He Declared He Was "Poor."

New York, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Mary Blair Brokaw was awarded alimony of $15,000 a year and separation from her husband, William Gould Brokaw, the millionaire clubman.

The decision was handed down in the supreme court at Mineola, L. I., by Justice Putnam, before whom the case was tried. The separation was granted on the grounds of desertion, and $30,000 a year alimony was asked for.

The Brokaw trial was one of the longest and most sensational in the history of separation suits in the state courts.

Mrs. Brokaw charged cruelty and abandonment. For days she occupied the witness stand, telling in detail how, as she alleged, she had been spied upon by servants. This, she said, was at Mr. Brokaw's direction while she was staying in the Brokaw residence at Great Neck, L. I., and Mr. Brokaw was at his hunting lodge in High Point, N. C. Her husband had neglected her and slighted her, she asserted, and finally abandoned her. She attributed his conduct to unreasoning and unjustifiable jealousy and a bad temper.

On cross-examination Mr. Brokaw's counsel tried to show that her husband's jealousy was justified. She was asked about a house party and other social happenings at Great Neck. Telegrams from the absent husband were produced demanding to know if such and such a man had been entertained with Mrs. Brokaw's woman friends on these occasions. Mrs. Brokaw persistently denied that she had ever carried on flirtations, or in any way given her husband cause for jealousy.

The telegrams and letters from Mr. Brokaw to his wife and from him to the Great Neck employes, read into the evidence, enlivened the trial appreciably. In one letter to his wife he said:

"You promised to see no man while I am away. You know what I told you about kissing the dicto. If he attempts to kiss you tell him that you do not kiss any one but your husband. I will know if you do, and if you kiss any one I will not want to kiss you again."

Mr. Brokaw's ordeal in the witness chair also was a long one. He denied he was a rich man, although he admitted he was worth about $1,500,000. He also denied that he frequently drank to excess in the first year of their married life. He laid upon Mrs. Brokaw the brunt of the blame for the many dissensions in the family. Also he refuted charges that his conduct had forced his wife to lock herself in her rooms and that he had forcibly entered her apartments against her will to resume quarrels with her.

Mr. Brokaw submitted a statement that he was worth only about $1,500,000 and that an award of $30,000 a year alimony would be excessive.

VOTE HORSES AND CATS

Mr. Crow Tells House of Awful Doings In "Show-Me" State.

Washington, Feb 4 — Representative Crow, of Missouri, rose to a question of personal privilege in the house and charged that the Democrats had "gerrymandered" his district to make it Democratic.

"They have been voting every man, dead or alive," he cried, "and to make good measure they have voted the names of horses, cats and dogs there."

TEN YEARS IN TORMENT

A Wonderful Escape From Torture.

While the Root Juice demonstrations were being conducted at Lafayette, Ind., Mr. A. C. Roberts, a traveling man, rushed into the drug store and grabbed the scientist by the hand and said: "There is no man on earth whom I would rather shake hands with than yourself. I made a wonderful escape from torment. This world was a perfect torture for me for over ten years. Every dollar I could rake and scrape I gave to the doctors and paid for medicine without anything more than momentary relief. My principal troubles were in my back. My kidneys gave me so much trouble I had to get up from ten to fifteen times a night, and if red-hot coals were kept on my back I don't believe I would have suffered any more. The doctors said my stomach was lined with gastric ulcers. One bite of solid food would put me in misery. I was dyspeptic, constipated, sallow, weak and nervous all the time, but the first bottle of Root Juice made a wonderful change for the better in my condition. I took about five bottles of the Juice and I don't believe thatan angel from heaven could be any happier than I am now. I feel like a new being, both mentally and physically, and will never stop praising Root Juice as long as I live.' The Juice has made scores of cures here, as anyone can learn by going to the People's drug stroe.

"No Three o'clock Fatigue"

The Value of the

Monarch Light Touch

A typewriter is not an automatic machine with a fixed output; the amount of work produced must always be dependent upon the operator.

The operator begins work in the morning with a certain supply of physical energy. With the ordinary heavy working typewriter she exhausts that energy before the day's end—then comes "three o'clock fatigue" and slow, dragging work.

Monarch Light Touch lightens the operator's load—draws less on her energy per folio. The result is that the operator is able to maintain full speed right up to closing time, finishing fresh and strong. Her efficiency is increased, the output of her machine is enlarged, and consequently the per folio cost of typewriting to her employer is reduced.

Let us demonstrate this and other Monarch features to you.
